Section 5 – Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. However, amendments to the Exceptions order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website or see here.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of interview. You may be asked to provide details about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure and Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

An offer of employment is conditional upon the School receiving an Enhanced Disclosure from the DBS which the School considers to be satisfactory. If you are successful in your application, you will be required to complete a Disclosure and Barring Application Form. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with the Code of Practice published by the Disclosure & Barring Service (a copy of which is available from the School on request).

Section 6 – Recruitment

Rydal Penrhos School is committed to ensuring that applicants and employees from all sections of the community are treated equally and not discriminated against on the grounds of gender, race, nationality, marital or civil partnership status, religion or belief, sexual orientation, disability, or age.

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Section 7 – Declaration
